Job description

Initially looking after clients, shampooing, assisting stylists, reception duties, and tidying the salon, the role expands as training progresses.

Training... The standard of training at Architect Hair is excellent, we insist on both in salon and out of house training. We work closely with Westrow Hairdressing Academy which provides learning to NVQ level 2 and 3.

Our current assistants are at the top of their levels within the academy.

Salon training is constant whilst in the salon learning basic skills, one evening per week is spent training on cutting and drying models, one evening per month is spent on colour training, also monthly training on salon etiquette and customer care. All this contributes to the Architect Training Programme which plans out and monitors a comprehensive path of learning leading to the achievement of a level of skill that well exceeds that required for NVQ level 3. We also offer out of salon training with L'Oreal and opportunities to assist and eventually work on fashion shows and other events. The final months of training are spent constantly working on models to reach the high standards that Architect Hair requires, successful trainees will be trained to qualified stylist level within 3 years.
